Updates...

- Please keep Margaret Hinshaw and her family in your prayers. Margaret, who worked at Christ the King Passionist Retreat Center for over 40 years, died on November 5. May she rest in peace.
- The Province Leadership Meeting was held in Houston, November 5.
- The Association of Local Superiors (ALS) and the Province Retreat Center Board (PRCB) met in Houston, November 6-8.
- The Provincial Council meets in Houston, November 8-9.
- The Fall issue of the magazine, The Passionists, is now online. Click here to read it.
- Please keep Mike Schweizer, Prep '69, and Craig Franklin, "would-be" Prep '70, in your prayers. Both Mike and Craig are experiencing health issues.
- The Passionist Alumni Council has created an online form to fill out for all alumni to update their contact information, and if they choose, opt-in to receive communications from the Alumni Council.

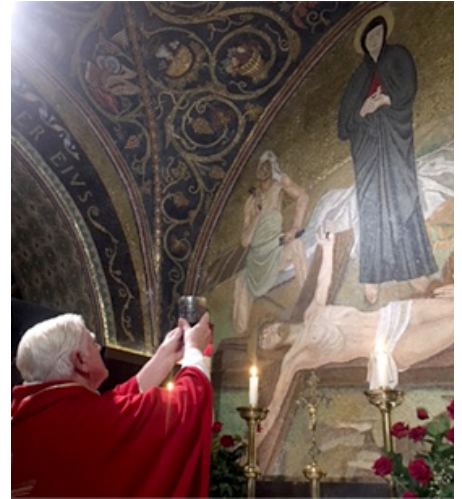

This is a new form specifically to receive communications from the Alumni Council. It is a completely separate database from any communications you currently receive from Holy Cross Province. Whether you are a vowed or lay alumnus, please make sure you update your information and opt-in. Click here to go to the form.

Photo Ops...

Bob Weiss recently led a tour to the Holy Land. As part of the tour, Bob celebrated Mass at the Church of the Holy Sepulchre in Jerusalem. It is believed that is the spot where Jesus was crucified.

Hello, Dear Friend...

During their recent visit to Sacred Heart Monastery in Louisville, Barbara Ayers and Loretta Ciesielski had the opportunity to have lunch and visit with Peter Fitzpatrick.

Prayer - Be Renewed...

Cedric Pisegna will air a five episode series about prayer on EWTN, November 12-16, 2018, at 5:30 p. m. ET. The rebroadcast will air the following day at 2:30 a. m. ET.

From EWTN's website:

Calling back to the parable of the vine and the branches, Fr. Cedric Pisegna, C.P., reminds Catholics that a strong prayer life keeps them connected to Jesus.

Vocations...

Members of the Vocation Teams from Holy Cross and St. Paul of the Cross Provinces attended the National Religious Vocation Conference (NRVC) Convocation, November 1-5, in Buffalo, New York. The theme for this year's gathering was Walk with me: Encounter, Accompaniment and Invitation.

Celebrating the Feast of St. Paul of the Cross...

The Community of Passionist Partners (CPP) in Nashville celebrated the Feast of St. Paul of the Cross with a Mass at the Cathedral of the Incarnation. Mass was followed by a luncheon in the Cathedral rectory.

John Patrick Day was the main celebrant of the Mass. He was joined by concelebrants Bob Weiss and Michael Fye, of Nashville, and Deacons Paul Taylor, Ken Levinson and Paul Brancheau.

It was a wonderful day to celebrate and remember our Passionist Founder.

Remembering Justin Bartoszek...

On October 18, John Schork, Don Webber, Angie Kwasinski and Phil Jackson joined the Bartoszek family in celebration of two very important events. Everyone gathered at Ed Bartoszek's home in Chicago to remember Justin Bartoszek. Justin passed away ten years earlier in October 2008 as a Passionist missionary in Seoul, South Korea. While remembering Justin, the group also celebrated the Feast day of Passionist founder, St. Paul of the Cross.
